Subject: Re: Fw: Dimock Pre-Drill Data

Hi Rich,
I called the hotline and was told that I need Humane Zia or Cathy McCool to give approval. I left a voice mail message with Humane (her message doesn't say if she's in today). I called Cathy and her voice mail states she's not in today (I did not leave a message). Hopefully, I will get approval to get in that drive and print the maps out for you today.

Thanks,

Linda

ok. you also might not be able to print it at the map size either. not sure where you are allowed to print to. an 8.5 x 11 won't be too helpful. thanks for the assistance.
